

THE ELLA POST SOCIETY AT WISCONSIN LUTHERAN
COLLEGE

The purpose of the Ella Post Society is to honor and recognize those friends and alumni who have included a legacy gift in their estate plans to benefit the college and have informed the college of their plans to do so. These dedicated individuals share Ella Post's early commitment to supporting the growth and development of one of the nation's finest Christian liberal arts colleges. By their support, these friends recognize the college's unique role in fulfilling our Savior's divine commission to make disciples of all nations.

A SHORT HISTORY

In 1982 Wisconsin Lutheran College existed as a non-accredited two-year institution with an enrollment of well under one hundred students. The campus (purchased in 1977) and facilities remained virtually unchanged from their original state; building programs for Wisconsin Lutheran were but a distant dream. In 1982, there were those who questioned the future of this fledgling liberal arts college affiliated with the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod.

In 1982 Ella Post, a Milwaukee-area Lutheran, led by faith in her God and the conviction that the world needed Wisconsin Lutheran College, was prompted to place the ultimate confidence in the college. When she passed away, the college received a substantial portion of Ella's estate so the mission to spread the good news of the gospel could be continued at Wisconsin Lutheran College well after the Lord called her to her eternal home. The society bears her name as a testament to her foresight and generosity to the college.
